

Gary Richins

HIGHLIGHTS

Owning and operating a successful business gives senior consultant Gary Richins an edge in helping clients execute on their most important priorities. In his 31 years with FranklinCovey, Gary has delivered over four thousand seminars.

Prior to his work at FranklinCovey, Gary, an entrepreneur at heart, owned his own company. He learned firsthand the importance of hiring good people and providing them with skills that ensured customer expectations were met and exceeded.

Early in Gary's tenure, FranklinCovey recognized his potential by awarding him the Rookie Consultant of the Year. For outstanding achievement, he has been invited five times to membership in FranklinCovey's President's Club.

Gary's clients represent a number of industries including automotive, healthcare, banking and lending, petroleum and energy, retail, pharmaceutical research, as well as a number of service organizations.
